N. B. In addition to the above catalogue of names, twenty-five others attended a small portion of the course of studies in the Seminary. Of these, several relinquished the view of the ministry altogether, whilst others continued their studies elsewhere, and are now doing good in the church. The whole number of those who have been connected with the institution, is three hundred and sixty-five.

The whole number of students in the Seminary during the last twelve months, is twenty-six. It may be gratifying to the church to know, that, besides these, there are upwards of FIFTY others in the literary institutions of this place preparing to engage in theological studies.

The Library of the Institution contains about 10,500 volumes chiefly selected in Europe, and is one of the most valuable in the United States.

Tuition, and use of Library, gratis. Boarding $2 00 per week in commons. Some students are boarded in private families at a lower rate.

The regular course of Lectures and studies commences with the Fall session ; which is, of course, the most proper time to enter the institution.

✎ We would earnestly invite the attention of the wealthy and benevolent, and also of those in middling circumstances, who either have no heirs, or whose relations are well provided for, to the form of a bequest on the last page of this pamphlet. What better appropriation can a true friend of the Savior and his church make of a portion of his property, than to devote it to this institution, which God has so signally blest in time past? Several brethren have thus aided the cause of God, and embalmed their memory in the hearts of the church, viz :

Mr. Scholl, of Frederick City, Md.	$500
Mr. A. Weaver, Leetown, Jefferson county, Va.....	100
Mr. Weibel, Gettysburg, Pa.	500
Mr. Isaac Baugher, Emmittsburg, Md.	500
Rev. Mr. Mensch, Lewisburg, Union county, Pa.....	500

Our ministerial brethren have the best opportunity to promote this object, by lending this pamphlet to such of their members as are able to aid the cause in the way here referred to ; and they are earnestly requested to give it their attention.
